French Learning Roadmap & Checklist

French A1

Overall Objective of A1 Level (Beginner)

The A1 level is the foundation of French learning, where the primary goal is survival communication. Learners at this level are expected to understand and use very basic expressions, interact in everyday situations, and convey personal information with limited vocabulary and simple sentence structures.

By the end of A1, a learner should be able to:

Speak

- [ ] Greet others and introduce themselves
- [ ] Give basic personal information (name, age, nationality, job, hobbies)
- [ ] Ask and answer simple questions (e.g., "Where do you live?", "What time is it?", "What do you like?")
- [ ] Talk about their daily routine, family, and immediate surroundings
- [ ] Handle simple, rehearsed conversations in shops, cafés, and public places

THE LANGUAGE NETWORK™

Write

- [ ] Fill in forms with personal details
- [ ] Write short, simple texts (e.g., introduction, routine, description)
- [ ] Use simple connectors like et, mais, parce que

Understand (Listening)

- [ ] Catch familiar everyday expressions spoken slowly and clearly
- [ ] Understand simple instructions or questions
- [ ] Follow basic conversations on familiar topics (spoken at slow speed)

Read

- [ ] Read and understand short, simple texts (e.g., signs, emails, menus, brochures)
- [ ] Recognize frequently used vocabulary related to immediate needs

THE LANGUAGE NETWORK™

Real-Life Outcomes

✅ Introduce yourself confidently at a French event
✅ Travel to France and handle basic daily interactions (shopping, asking directions, booking)
✅ Build a vocabulary base of 500–700 words
✅ Begin thinking and forming sentences in French

- [ ] Silent letters & liaison in pronunciation (grasp basic concept)

21. Tenses & Verb Structures – A1 Level (Revised & Complete)

While French A1 primarily focuses on present tense, learners are also introduced to other essential tenses and constructions that help them function in everyday communication. These include the near future, immediate past, and some expressions that resemble other tense usages.

✅ Present Tense – Le Présent de l'indicatif

- [ ] Conjugate and use regular -er verbs in the present (e.g., parler, aimer, travailler)
- [ ] Conjugate and use regular -ir verbs in the present (e.g., finir, choisir)
- [ ] Conjugate and use regular -re verbs in the present (e.g., attendre, vendre)
- [ ] Use present tense with être, avoir, aller, faire
- [ ] Use present tense with reflexive verbs (se lever, se coucher, s'appeler)
- [ ] Present tense of common irregular verbs:
  – vouloir, pouvoir, devoir
  – prendre, venir, dire, mettre (recognition or basic use)

✅ Near Future – Le Futur Proche

- [ ] Understand and use aller + infinitive to talk about future plans
  Example: Je vais partir demain. Tu vas étudier ce soir.
- [ ] Conjugate aller in the present + use correct infinitive verb
- [ ] Use in personal and question forms: Qu'est-ce que tu vas faire ce week-end ?

✅ Recent Past – Le Passé Récent

- [ ] Understand the structure: venir de + infinitive
  Example: Je viens de manger. Il vient d'arriver.
- [ ] Conjugate venir in the present
- [ ] Use to talk about what just happened
  (Je viens de finir mes devoirs.)

✅ Habitual Past with "depuis" – Present tense with "since"

- [ ] Use present tense + depuis to describe ongoing actions
  Example: J'habite ici depuis 2 ans. Il travaille depuis lundi.
- [ ] Understand how French uses the present tense where English uses present perfect

✅ Introduction to Past – Passé Composé (Optional/Intro Use Only)

Note: While passé composé is formally taught in A2, many A1 courses introduce it passively or in recognition for learners to start understanding basic narratives or very common verbs in past.

- [ ] Recognize passé composé form: avoir/être + past participle
- [ ] Be able to identify and understand basic sentences in passé composé (e.g., J'ai fini, Tu as parlé, Il est allé)
- [ ] Learn the past participles of common verbs (mangé, fait, vu, pris, etc.)
- [ ] Basic spoken/written exposure to être/avoir auxiliaries

✅ Expressing the Date and Age (Time-Linked Structures)

- [ ] Use avoir + number + ans to talk about age
- [ ] Use le + number + month to express dates: le 14 juillet, le 1er mai
- [ ] Use c'est + date to talk about today's date: C'est le 2 janvier.

✅ Time Expressions Associated with Tenses

- [ ] Aujourd'hui, maintenant – for present
- [ ] Demain, ce week-end, ce soir – for futur proche
- [ ] Hier, il y a deux jours – for passé composé or passé récent
- [ ] Depuis, pendant – to anchor actions in time

✅ Listening Goals for A1

By the end of A1, the learner should be able to:

- Understand slow and clear speech on familiar topics
- Catch key words and basic phrases in real-life contexts
- Follow short, simple conversations about familiar subjects
- Understand questions and instructions if spoken clearly
- Use context and tone to guess unknown words

✅ You're Ready to Move to A2 Only If...

Use this checklist as a final self-evaluation or assessment guide. Tick only if you can confidently do these things in real time — not just recognize, but use them.

1. Speaking Readiness

- [ ] You can introduce yourself and ask/answer personal questions without help
- [ ] You can describe your family, daily routine, house, and city in short sentences

You can order food, buy things in a shop, and ask for directions

- [ ] You can talk about the weather, time, dates, and basic plans (using "aller + infinitive")
- [ ] You can have short, simple conversations in real-life situations (e.g., at a café, at the station)

2. Listening Comprehension

- [ ] You can understand slow and clear French about familiar topics
- [ ] You can catch key details in simple conversations or audio recordings
- [ ] You can follow instructions, questions, and routine exchanges when spoken clearly
- [ ] You can recognize basic vocabulary and verb patterns in natural speech

3. Writing Skills

- [ ] You can write short paragraphs about yourself, your routine, your family, and your city
- [ ] You can complete forms, write messages, and compose simple dialogues
- [ ] You can express opinions and preferences using common structures
- [ ] You can write using present tense, basic connectors (et, mais, parce que) and correct word order

4. Grammar Mastery

- [ ] You have mastered present tense conjugations of regular -er, -ir, -re verbs
- [ ] You can use être, avoir, aller, faire, and some irregular verbs correctly
- [ ] You understand subject-verb agreement, adjective agreement, and negation
- [ ] You can use simple structures like c'est, il y a, futur proche, ne...pas, il faut
- [ ] You know and use articles (le/la/les/un/une/des/du/de la), possessives, prepositions, and question words

5. Vocabulary & Expression

- [ ] You know 700–1000 words related to everyday life
- [ ] You can describe people, places, objects, and actions using basic vocabulary
- [ ] You can express needs, likes/dislikes, emotions, and simple opinions
- [ ] You can function in basic real-life situations with memorized and familiar phrases

6. Confidence & Consistency

- [ ] You can think in French for short periods without translating every word
- [ ] You feel confident forming your own sentences (not only repeating learned ones)
- [ ] You understand the structure of the French language and know how to keep learning
- [ ] You are actively using French daily — through speaking, listening, reading or writing

🟢 If you've checked at least 90% of the above boxes:

You are ready to move to A2.
